

SERVICE PROVIDERS / MULTI-DROP DELIVERY DRIVERS

About b-spokes

b-spokes are one of the UK's largest independent family-run delivery companies. We provide multi-drop delivery services for market leading brands within our industry, specialising in last mile deliveries in Scotland and the North of England.

New Opportunities

We currently have over 200 vans on the road across Aberdeen; the Central Belt of Scotland; and Carlisle and Newcastle in the North of England. We are experiencing a period of rapid organic growth and in preparation for our peak season, October to December, we are now looking to recruit competent drivers on a self-employed basis.

What We Offer You

- Our support and guidance throughout your time with us
- Full-time opportunity (Self Employed)
- 6-day rota - Hours between 08:00 – 18:00
- Drivers paid monthly, per delivery/collection average 160 packages/day
- Average earnings £600+/week
- Opportunity to be entered into a monthly good performance bonus draw
- Full training

As a driver for b-spokes you'll become part of a supportive team that works hard together to create an unbeatable service. Specifically, this will involve:

- Loading, unloading, and operating your designated van
- Locating and driving to various addresses on your predefined route
- Delivering and collecting parcels on time, with the use of our barcode scanner

What we need from you

It is essential that you should:

- Hold a full clean Driving Licence
- Be enthusiastic, with drive and energy
- Be able to make multi-drop deliveries and collections to both residential and commercial customers
- Be able to load your van efficiently
- Be able to work on your own initiative with minimal supervision, but as part of a team
- Have exceptional customer focus and customer service
- Be reliable and trustworthy
- Be polite to our customers
- Have strong time management skills to meet tight delivery timescales
- Be well-presented
- Have a smart phone
- Provide 5 years' residential and work history

At b-spokes we pride ourselves on always going the extra mile for our customers and in everything we do – we look for candidates who can demonstrate this principle to us too. Ideally, we also look for:

- Previous experience of multi-drop deliveries, ideally 2 years' experience
- Strong geographical knowledge of the designated route areas

b-spokes are an equal opportunities service provider. We actively seek to engage a diverse workforce basing our recruitment decisions on candidates' skills, personal qualities and experience.

b-spokes COVID-19 considerations

To keep everyone safe, b-spokes has implemented a number of COVID-19 safety measures: We ensure appropriate social distancing measures are in place at all times. We have onsite daily temperature checks for all staff at our depots; and provide hand sanitiser; masks and gloves. We have also installed wash stations at some of our sites and are investing in disinfecting spray for high touch areas at our sites.

If you want to work with a successful and growing company, then please submit your details via our website and you will be sent an application form.
